

Website Direction & Aesthetic

- Client wants a clean luxury aesthetic
- Strong preference for:
 - Black background
 - White text
 - Small gold/silver accents
- Wants to move away from the current white-heavy design
- Inspiration references:
 - “Alex Moss”
 - A luxury jewelry/watch site mentioned as “jewelers.com / Jewel X related”
- Wants the site to feel:
 - premium
 - high-end
 - luxury-focused
 - modern/minimal

Main Website Focus Shift

Current site focus:

- Watches/timepieces

New desired focus:

1. Engagement rings
2. Custom jewelry
3. Luxury timepieces

Client specifically said:

- Jewelry/custom builders should be the FIRST thing users see
- Ring builder should become the primary conversion focus
- Watches are still important but easier for users to shop already

Navigation/Header Structure

Requested header structure:

1. Ring Builder
2. Custom Jewelry
3. Luxury Timepieces

Changes requested:

- Remove separate watch brand tabs from main nav
- Consolidate all watch brands under:
 - “Luxury Timepieces”
- Dropdown under timepieces should include:
 - Rolex
 - AP
 - Patek etc.
- Sorting by models should happen INSIDE the brand page, not in main nav

Jewelry Section Changes

Current jewelry inventory:

- Being removed

Replacing with:

- Ring Builder
- Custom Jewelry Builder
- Jewel X software integration

Client clarified:

- No jewelry inventory for now
- Focus is on custom pieces/builders

Content & Homepage Notes

Homepage should:

- Prioritize jewelry/rings
- Use stronger luxury storytelling
- Reduce clutter/restructure current content

Need from client:

- Jewelry-related written content
- Brand values/story
- Ethical sourcing info if applicable
- Business background/history

Reason:

- Avoid generic jewelry website copy
- Make experience feel personalized/premium

Visual/Media Requirements

Client will provide:

- Product photos
- 3DM/STL files
- Custom jewelry renders

Team suggested:

- Video renderings can be created
- Existing low-quality images can be improved

Important note:

- Team prefers using client's actual products instead of stock imagery

Functionality Notes

Watch purchasing flow remains:

- Price on request
- Contact/call/email
- Wire transfer info

No direct checkout functionality mentioned.
